Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Judith (Judy) Ann Langenfeld and Willard Oswald Redemske exchanged their wedding vows on the coldest day of the twentieth century at Immaculate Conception Church in Watertown, South Dakota, on February 13, 1965, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 40 years ago has been and continue to be devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow and have grown to love one another even more; and,

Whereas, Willard and Judy are also wonderful dancing partners, as most recently demonstrated at the Cole and Nicole Namken wedding; and,

Whereas, Willard has Judy to do the worrying and Judy has Willard to worry about; and,

Whereas, Willard and Judy are wonderful parents to Leslie and Jason, and wonderful grandparents to Brittany, Brennan, Landen, Breyanna, and McKenzie; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate this milestone in the lives of Judy and Willard Redemske:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 13, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

WILLARD AND JUDY REDEMSKE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State